In case you come across any problems or situations not covered in this manual, please contact us via mail, phone and we will be sure to provide you our expert advice on the aspects which require clarification.

You are required to examine the institute's structure and meet the faculty and students for the purpose of assessment and evaluation. The report contains a feedback area, where you are suggested to provide your comments and observations, after which you are requested to send the duly filled report back to us.
